MEETINGS FIRST AND THIRD MONDAYS, 8 P. M.

February 2, 1943

The regular meeting of the Mayor and Common Council was called to order at 8:15 P.M. in the office at the Seat Pleasant Fire Department Building, by Mayor Van Moreland. Councilmen Wells, Moran, Opitz and Roberts were present. The minutes of the meeting of January 4 and 5, 1943 were approved as read.

John Marquette of Field Street, was elected to the council to fill the unexpired term of J. Theodore Crown. Mr. Marquette was instructed by Mayor Moreland to be sworn in by Edward F. Roberson, Notary Public.

The clerk was authorized to purchase a new tax assessment book, $11.00 for postage stamps, new front foot assessment bills, have the assessment book rewritten and brought up to date by Mrs. Jeanette Wyvill of Upper Marlboro, new stationery and envelopes and any other equipment needed to carry on the collection of taxes.

The clerk was instructed to communicate with the State Roads Commission to inquire if any gas tax refund was due the town. He was also instructed to contact the public Service Commission of Maryland for information concerning the franchise of the Washington, Marlboro and Annapolis bus line in the town. Another communication was ordered to Harold L. Sothoron, town attorney, to see what action may be taken against the bus company for changing its route without due notice.

The clerk was also instructed to contact Joseph Chaney of the State Roads Commission and request when curbs are laid on Field Street that they correspond with the street width established by the town. A letter to the plumbing inspector of the Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission was ordered by Councilman James M. Roberts complaining of an open sewer trap and a disconnected sewer hook-up at 607 68th Street.

The clerk was instructed to contact Cecil Gilbert of Meadows, Md. to have the town truck repaired.

The meeting adjourned at 10 P.M.
